

The Folk Collection

Your Favorite Songs of the 60's Folk Era

In the tradition of the folk trios of the '60's, The Folk Collection combines rich three-part harmonies with excellent musicianship, humor and energy to bring your audiences a thoroughly enjoyable experience—at an affordable price.

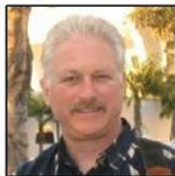

Most of the repertoire is familiar to audiences of all ages. With top 40 hits including “This Land is Your Land,” “Blowin’ in the Wind,” “Where Have All the Flowers Gone?” and “If I Had A Hammer,” ballads and originals, a TFC show is family friendly and comfortable.

Over the last year, The Folk Collection has played to enthusiastic audiences at public venues such as the City of Calimesa Summer Concerts, Escondido, Oceanside and West Covina public libraries, The Levitt Pavilion in Pasadena and the Old Town Music Hall of El Segundo. We’ve also entertained sold out rooms at such spots as Bob Stane’s Coffee Gallery Backstage in Altadena, Bean Town in Sierra Madre, the Noble House Concerts in the San Fernando Valley and at the very selective once-a-month show at Blue Ridge Pickin’ Parlor in Granada Hills. We have played at fairs, outdoor concerts, organizational fundraisers, and private parties.

TONY UNGER

The members of TFC all grew up in the 60's when they fell in love with the story songs and three-part harmonies of that acoustic era. Ed and Tony have been a duo on and off since their days at Hollywood High School. Mike joined in the spring of 2003. Bassist Bob Packham, another alum of the 60's folk era, joined in 2005.

Bottom line: The Folk Collection entertains. The goal is to keep audiences laughing, singing and celebrating all night long and all the way home.
